

Molloy College

Education in the Dominican Tradition

1000 Hempstead Avenue

PO BOX 5002

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, NY 11571-5002

TEL: 516-256-2207

FAX: 516-256-2210

SPORTS INFORMATION

Dan Drutz

Molloy College

Sports Information Director

Phone: 516-678-5000 ext.6479

Fax: 516-256-2210

E-mail: ddrutz@molloy.edu

Website: www.molloy.edu

February 2, 2005

Transactions - 1

Thomas Campolettano Named Molloy's First Women's Lacrosse Coach

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, NY - Thomas Campolettano was named head coach of the new women's lacrosse program at Molloy College this afternoon. The women's lacrosse team will compete in NCAA Division II and the New York Collegiate Athletic Conference beginning in the Spring of 2006.

Campolettano comes to Molloy after coaching the Manhasset High School Girls Lacrosse team for the past six seasons. He led Manhasset to the League Championship in 1999 and 2001, the New York State Small School Championship in 2003 and the Long Island Small School Championship in 2004. He was named Nassau County Coach of the Year in 2001 and the Newsday Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2004.

Campolettano's coaching experience also includes being a Junior Varsity Assistant Football Coach at Manhasset, the Junior Varsity Boys Basketball Head Coach at Manhasset for one season and eight seasons as the boys lacrosse coach at North Shore High School.

He earned a Master's degree in Sociology from SUNY-Brockport in 1982 and a Master's degree in Physical Education from Adelphi University in 1990. Campolettano also earned a Professional Diploma in Educational Leadership from LIU-C.W. Post in 2001.

Campolettano is a K-5 Adaptive Physical Education Teacher at P.S. 224 in Bayside, NY. He resides in Hicksville, NY.

--LIONS--