Molloy College Presents 'A Man for All Seasons' Part of the Pearls from Three Decades Film Festival

Molloy College will be screening the movie, "A Man for All Seasons" on February 18, 2005 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hays Theater located in the Wilbur Arts Center. A discussion of the film will follow. This event will be the finale of the 2004-2005 series: "Pearls from Three Decades of Molloy College Film Festivals."

In the film adaptation of his play, Robert Bolt has honed his depiction of a saint for all ages. Supported by a superb cast, Paul Schofield renders the finest performance of his career as Thomas More, a good man, warmly human, clinging tenaciously to life, yet utterly true to his personal convictions, his faith and his God.

Joining festival coordinator Sister Mary Verity McNicholas, O.P., Ph.D. for the post-film discussion will be Rev. Msgr. James P. Lisante, pastor of St. Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead, NY, whose enthusiasm for film features significantly in his ministry through lecturing and writing.

After his presentation, Monsignor Lisante will join Sister Mary Verity for an open discussion with the audience regarding the ramifications of the film.

Sister Mary Verity, professor emerita of film and drama criticism at Molloy College, served as film critic and consultant for the U.S. Catholic Conference until the relocation of its headquarters to Washington, D.C.
