Molloy College Hosts Book Discussion: Black and Blue by Anna Quindlen

The Siena Women's Center at Molloy College will be hosting a book discussion on February 24, 2005 at 5:30 p.m. in the Reception Room at Kellenberg Hall. The group will discuss Anna Quindlen's most recent novel, Black and Blue. This event is free and open to the public.

Black and Blue is the story of Fran Benedetto, a battered woman who takes her ten-year-old son and flees her abusive husband. The author of One True Thing, and Object Lessons, Anna Quindlen has called this her best novel to date.

Although the book discussions are informal, Sister Margaret Kavanagh and Dr. Lillian Bozak-DeLeo, Directors of the Siena Women's Center, will serve as moderators for the evening.

The Siena Women's Center at Molloy College focuses on issues pertinent to women in today's society. It offers a variety of lectures, discussions and symposia exploring topics of interest and importance to women.

For more information about the book discussion or the Siena Women's Center, please contact Darlene Martin at 516-678-5000 extension 6302.
