Molloy College Hosts Interfaith Exchange

Molloy College's Center for Christian and Jewish Studies will be hosting an interfaith exchange on March 6, 2005. This event is free and open to the public.

The event will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the Board Room, Kellenberg Hall, Molloy College with a continental breakfast. (Reservations are required.) Sister Dorothy Fitzgibbons, O.P., Vice President for Mission at Molloy College will present an overview of a mass and will proceed with the group to St. Agnes Cathedral in Rockville Centre. Catholic Mass will be celebrated at 11:00 a.m. which will include songs, prayers, a homily and the celebration of the Eucharist.

On April 22, 2005 members of the community are invited to attend Reform services at Temple Sinai in Roslyn Heights at 7:00 p.m. (The temple is only 6.5 miles from Molloy College.)

"For many people, organized forms of worship remain an integral part of religious expression, a way to share important beliefs, nourish the spirit, create fellowship and celebrate the gift of life," explains Marion Lowenthal, Director, Molloy Center for Christian and Jewish Studies. "As most events hosted by the Center for Christian and Jewish Studies, the interfaith exchange will provide people with the opportunity to learn about each other's faith."

For directions or further information, contact Marion Lowenthal at 516-678-5000 ext. 6880. This program is free of charge.
