Molloy College Elects Alumnus as New Board Chairman

Molloy College's Board of Trustees recently elected Daniel L. Murphy, as Chairman of its Board. Mr. Murphy is the first Molloy alumnus to hold this post in the College's 50-year history. He succeeds former Chairman Joseph Metz.

Prior to being elected as Chairman, Murphy was an active member of the Board. He chaired the Board's Development Committee and agreed to oversee the College's upcoming capital campaign.

"I strongly believe in the mission of the College," stated Murphy. "Molloy is an active, local venue that has woven itself into the fabric of Long Island. This speaks volumes about the accomplishments of the College and how it is perceived in the Long Island community."

Murphy has enjoyed a successful career in the banking industry and is looking forward to his new position at Molloy. "Molloy is celebrating the 50th anniversary of its founding. This is an exciting time for the College," stated Murphy. "We need to take the initiative to ensure the future of this remarkable institution. In asking others to support my alma mater, I hope to become Molloy's biggest booster."

Drew Bogner, President of Molloy College is pleased that Murphy was chosen to Chair the Board: "Dan Murphy is a dynamic leader for a dynamic institution. He appreciates the enthusiasm and talent of the many people who help make Molloy the great place that it is, and I look forward to continuing the productive and enjoyable working relationship we already share."
