Molloy College Hosts Fall Film Festival: Vertigo

Molloy College is concluding its Fall Film Festival: Revisiting Favorite Classics of the Fifties by focusing the spotlight on the genius of Alfred Hitchcock in his spellbinding movie Vertigo. This classic film will be shown on Friday, November 18, 2005 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hays Theatre, Wilbur Arts Center on the Molloy College campus. This event is open to the public.

True to his reputation, Hitchcock engulfs the viewer, as well as San Francisco John Scottie (James Stewart), in a whirlpool of terror and tension as Scottie wrestles with his psychological obsession with a feat of heights and his compulsion to thwart the attempt of a woman (Kim Novak) to jump to her death.

Joining Sister Mary Verity McNicholas, O.P., Ph.D., on the panel for the post-film discussion will be Monsignor James P. Swiader, Dean of Seminarians and Director of Pastoral Formation at Immaculate Conception Seminary in Huntington, formerly professor of philosophy at Molloy College and director of dramatics at St. Pius X Preparatory Seminary in Uniondale.

Sister Mary Verity, Professor Emerita of English and Film and Drama Criticism, served as consultant for the U.S. Catholic Conference until its relocation to Washington, D.C.

This year, the Molloy College Film Festival is made possible, in part, through support from the St. Agnes Cathedral Chapter of the Knights of Columbus and Verity Van Lines.
