Molloy College Hosts an Evening of Greek Culture

The Long Island ESOL Institute at Molloy College will be sponsoring an evening of Greek culture on December 2, 2005 from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the Multipurpose Room, Wilbur Arts Center on the Molloy College campus. This event is free and open to the public.

Dr. Vicky Giouroukakis, Assistant Professor, Graduate Education at Molloy College will be the host for this interactive cultural event. Professor Christos P. Ionannides, Director of the Center for Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies at Queens College, City University of New York will present a lecture and slide show on Greek history and civilization. Professor Giouroukakis will discuss how Greek-Americans maintain their cultural identity. Eleni Natsiopoulou, a Ph.D. candidate will present a study titled, "Miscommunication in the Classroom: A Case Study of Greek Students." The Greek Cultural Center dance group will also perform.

According to Professor Giouroukakis, the purpose of the evening is to celebrate and promote Greek history, language and culture. In addition, it can also educate teachers about Greek culture and how to work with students of Greek or Greek-American origin.

For more information, contact the Office of Communications and Public Affairs at 516-678-5000 ext. 6300.
