Molloy College's Musical Holiday Party 2005 Come Celebrate with Song and Dance

The Molloy College Center for Christian/Jewish Studies invites the community to usher in the winter season with an afternoon of music at their "Musical Holiday Party 2005." This program will be held on December 11, 2005 at 3:00 p.m., in the Anselma Room, Kellenberg Hall at Molloy College. This event is free and open to the public.

The afternoon begins with a performance by the St. Agnes Cathedral Girls' Choir, conducted by Choirmaster Michael Wustrow. Through songs inspired by faith, the choir will share their meaning of Christmas, and offer both sacred and secular musical offerings expressing their hope for a peaceful New Year.

The festivities continue with Margot Leverett and Joe Selly of the The Klezmer Mountain Duo. With saxophone, clarinet and guitar, Ms. Leverett and Mr. Selly will perform both traditional and original compositions, as well as a unique blend of Klezmer and Bluegrass music.

The Center for Christian/Jewish Studies at Molloy College was established in 1999 in a spirit of intellectual and collaborative respect to promote dialogue and understanding between Christians and Jews. The goal of the Center is to increase knowledge of one another, pointing out that both religions share much history, many values, and a deep philosophic background. The Center also sponsors workshops and seminars to exchange viewpoints and to examine topics of equal importance to individuals of both religious traditions.

For further information, please contact the Center for Christian/Jewish Studies at 516-678-5000 ext. 6880.
