Molloy College Celebrates “The Last Days of John Lennon”

To mark the 25th anniversary of the death of former Beatle John Lennon, the Molloy Institute for Life Long Learning at Molloy College will present, “The last days of John Lennon,” on Tuesday, December 13, 2005 at 11:15 a.m. This event, which will be held in the Hays Theatre at Molloy College, is free and open to the public.

Photographer Lou Capone will discuss the last weeks of John Lennon’s life. Mr. Capone’s lecture will include a discussion of his last interviews, the “Double Fantasy” record album and the events leading to Lennon’s untimely death. Photographs of Lennon taken by Mr. Capone will be shown during his lecture. In addition, a vintage print of Lennon will be raffled off after the lecture.

For more information, please contact the Office of Communications and Public Relations at 516-678-5000 ext. 6300.
