Molloy College Presents Financial Accountability in our Schools: Business Ethics in the Public Sphere"

The Molloy College Center for Business Ethics will be presenting "Financial Accountability in our Schools: Business Ethics in the Public Sphere" on Thursday, April 7th, from 9:30 - 10:30 am in the Hays Theatre, Wilbur Arts Center. This event is free and open to the public.

"Business ethics is not just about business," remarked William Kline, Director of the Business Ethics Center. "Honesty, trust and accountability apply in the public sphere just as surely as in the private especially in an institution as important as education." Alan Hevesi, Comptroller of the State of New York, will be addressing the fundamental importance of financial accountability in public education, and what is currently being done to ensure proper stewardship of public funds. There will be a question and answer period following the presentation.

For more information or to RSVP for this event, please contact the Center for Business Ethics, Molloy College at 516- 678-5000 ext.6979.
