Molloy College Presents Seminar on Criminal Profiling

The Molloy College Psychology Club and the Psychology Department are pleased to host Dr. Douglas L. Egan on April 1, 2005. Dr. Egan, a clinical psychologist with extensive experience treating a wide range of psychological disorders, will be discussing criminal profiling from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Reception Room, Kellenberg Hall. This event is free and open to the public.

Dr. Eagan, an adjunct assistant professor of psychology at Molloy College, has particular expertise in the area of occupational stress that is unique to police officers. His accomplishments include developing courses in police psychology, the psychology of criminal profiling, and forensic psychology. After his presentation, Dr. Eagan will take questions from the audience.

For more information, please contact Dr. Cheryl Camenzuli at 516-678-5000 extension 6109.
