Molloy College Hosts Book and Film Discussion: Enchanted April by Elizabeth Von Arnim

The Siena Women's Center at Molloy College will be hosting a book and film discussion on April 7, 2005 at 5:30 p.m. in the Reception Room, Kellenberg Hall, Molloy College. The group will discuss Elizabeth Von Arnim's book and film, Enchanted April. This event is free and open to the public.

Enchanted April is the story of four very different women who leave the dismal British weather to vacation at San Salvatore, a castle high above a bay on the sunny Italian Riviera. While on vacation at the castle, the Mediterranean spirit stirs the souls of these women and remarkable changes occur.

Anyone who has read the novel or has seen the movie is invited to attend this discussion which will be led by Sister Margaret Kavanagh and Dr. Lillian Bozak-DeLeo, Directors of the Siena Women's Center.

The Siena Women's Center at Molloy College focuses on issues pertinent to women in today's society. It offers a variety of lectures, discussion and symposia exploring topics of interest and importance to women.
