Molloy College Center for Christian/Jewish Studies To Host Communal Passover Seder

The Molloy College Center for Christian/Jewish Studies invites the community to attend a Communal Passover Seder and participate in commemorating Passover. This interfaith celebration will be presented on Tuesday, March 15, 2005 at 7:00 p.m. in the Anselma Room, Kellenberg Hall at Molloy College, Rockville Centre.

For Jews throughout the world, celebrating Passover commemorates freedom from bondage. Rabbi Paul Kushner will bring to life the story of the Exodus with humor, folk tales and timeless wisdom as those gathered share the important symbolism of Passover and sample the culinary delights that help define the traditional Seder.

- Leader: Rabbi Paul Kushner, Temple, Shaarei Shalom, Bellmore
- Reservations must be received by Friday, March 11, 2005
- A donation of $10.00 per person must be paid in advance. Molloy College students are invited at no charge.
- Please call 678-5000 ext. 6880 to reserve your place.

The Center for Christian/Jewish Studies at Molloy College was established in 1999 in a spirit of intellectual and collaborative respect to promote dialogue and understanding between Christians and Jews. The goal of the Center is to increase knowledge of one another, pointing out that both religions share much history, many values, and a deep philosophic background.
