Molloy College Awards New Social Work Degree

For the first time in the College's 50-year history, the Department of Social Work at Molloy College awarded Bachelor of Science degrees to its graduates. Previously, students who completed their degree in Social Work were awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree.

"On May 18, 2005, we received word from the New York State Education Department that they approved an award change for the Social Work Program from the Bachelor of Arts Degree to the Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) Degree," stated Valerie Collins, Ph.D., Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of the Faculty. "As a result of the hard work and dedication of Dr. Maureen Carey, Chairperson of the Social Work Department and her faculty and staff, the 2005 Graduates of the Social Work Department were the first class to be awarded their BSW degrees at Commencement."
