Molloy College Hosts Book Discussion:
The Memory Keeper's Daughter by Kim Edwards

The Siena Women's Center at Molloy College will be hosting a book discussion on Thursday, November 9, 2006 at 5:30 p.m. in the Board Room in Kellenberg Hall on the Molloy College campus. The group will discuss Kim Edwards' novel, The Memory Keeper's Daughter. This event is free and open to the public.

The Memory Keeper's Daughter is a family drama that explores every mother's silent fear: what would happen if you lost your child and she grew up without you? A rich and deeply moving page-turner, The Memory Keeper's Daughter captures the way life takes unexpected turns and how the mysterious ties that hold a family together help us survive the heartache that occurs when long-buried secrets burst into the open. It is an astonishing tale of redemptive love.

Although the book discussions are informal, Sister Margaret Kavanagh and Dr. Lillian Bozak-DeLeo, Directors of the Siena Women's Center, will serve as moderators for the evening.

The Siena Women's Center at Molloy College focuses on issues pertinent to women in today's society. It offers a variety of lectures, discussions and symposia exploring topics of interest and importance to women.
