Molloy College's Institute for Departmental Leadership Presents: "The Recruitment, Selection and Development of New Teachers"

The Institute for Departmental Leadership at Molloy College is presenting a workshop on March 10, 2006 from 11:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m., at the Molloy College Suffolk Center in East Farmingdale. This workshop is open to the public however it is not a free event. The cost of the program, which includes lunch, is $35.00 if received by March 3rd, or $40.00 if received after March 3rd at the door.

With many school districts facing the retirement of a number of teachers, many schools will be faced with a great deal of turnover. "The Recruitment, Selection and Development of New Teachers" program will provide participants with the tools and skills to recruit, select and develop new teachers.

The program will consist of a panel discussion on the topic by school administrators from various school districts on Long Island. Panelists include:

- Diane B. Scricca, Deputy Superintendent, Malverne School District, keynote address
- Fino Celano, Assistant to the Superintendent, Garden City Public Schools
- Dr. Irene F. Halpin, Assistant Superintendent for Personnel & Administration, Bellmore Merrick Central High School District
- Charles A. Leunig, Assistant Superintendent for Personnel & Administrative Services, Copiague School District

Details on the program, including a registration form, can be downloaded at www.molloy.edu/idl or contact Louis Cino either by e-mail (lcino@molloy.edu) or at 516-678-5000 ext. 6357.

For further information, please contact the Office of Public Relations at 516-678-5000 ext. 6300.
