Haiti and Haitians Facing Globalization in the Diaspora Part of the Crossroads of Faith and Culture Series

The Molloy College Office for Mission is pleased to hold the 5th annual conference of the Haitian-American Family of Long Island on March 21, 2006. This conference will take place from 9:00 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. in the Multipurpose Room, Wilbur Arts Center, Molloy College.

“The conference offers an opportunity for Molloy and the surrounding communities to examine how all of us are connected with the reality of what’s happening in the world around us,” states S. Dorothy Fitzgibbons, O.P., Vice President for Mission, Molloy College.

“Participants will explore ways to apply what they learn in their interactions with others of diverse backgrounds,” states Maryse Emmanuel-Garcy, Executive Director, Haitian-American Family of Long Island.
