Poetry Event at Molloy College Featuring Tammy Nuzzo-Morgan

Molloy College welcomes Tammy Nuzzo-Morgan, who will be reading her poetry on September 17, 2006, at 3:00 pm in the Multipurpose Room, Wilbur Arts Center. This event is free and open to the public. An open reading, in which audience members have an opportunity to share their own poetry, will follow the featured poet.

Tammy Nuzzo-Morgan is a 2006 Pulitzer Prize nominee for her poetry collection, "Let Me Tell You About Something (Street Press)," 2005 nominee for Poet Laureate of Suffolk County, and founder of The North Sea Poetry Scene.

This poetry reading is part of a series, Poetry Events at Molloy College, founded, sponsored, and hosted by Barbara Novack, Writer-in-Residence at Molloy College, and co-sponsored by the English Department. The series brings poetry to Molloy College and Long Island's vibrant poetry community to a wider audience.
