Molloy College Institute for Christian/Jewish Dialogue Presents "Great Religious Trials Throughout History"

The Molloy College Institute for Christian/Jewish Dialogue invites the community to attend the panel discussion, "Great Religious Trials Throughout History" on Sunday, April 22, 2007 at 3:00 p.m. in the Hays Theatre, Wilbur Arts Center on the Molloy College campus. There is no charge to attend this discussion.

Join distinguished scholars as they reconstruct some of the most fascinating cases ever brought to trial; trials that sought to condemn five men for their integrity, vision, inspiration, and intellect. Come join us in a discussion about the trials of Socrates, Jesus, Galileo, Spinoza and Dreyfus.

Panelists for the discussion will include:

- Reverend Thomas Catania, Professor, Departments of English and Theology and Religious Studies, Molloy College
- Rabbi Paul Kushner, Temple Shaarei Shalom, Bellmore
- Stephan Mayo, Ph.D., Professor, Department of Philosophy, Molloy College
- Rabbi Cara Weinstein Rosenthal, Solomon Schechter School
- Andrew Vasilakis, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry and Environmental Studies, Molloy College

The Center for Christian/Jewish Dialogue was established at Molloy College to provide a forum for the community to share beliefs, express concerns, discover similarities and respect differences. The Center offers many different events including lectures, forums, and book reviews in order to further its mission.

For more information please contact, Marion Lowenthal, Director, Institute for Christian/Jewish Dialogue, at 516.678.5000 ext. 6880.
