

Office of Public Relations
516.678.5000 ext. 6300/6119

For Immediate Release

September 21, 2007

Molloy College Hosts *Champions for a Greener Nassau

Molloy College and the Long Island Chapter of the New York League of Conservation Voters will host the Champions for a Greener Nassau Cocktail Party on Thursday, October 4, 2007. This special event will be held from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Reception Room, Kellenberg Hall, on the Molloy College campus located in Rockville Centre.

Champions for a Greener Nassau will honor elected officials and regional planning experts who have helped shape sound environmental policies and practices for Nassau County. The following individuals will be honored: New York State Comptroller Thomas DiNapoli, Senate Majority Leader Dean Skelos, Nassau County Legislators David Denenberg and Edward Magano, as well as Michael White, executive director of the Long Island Regional Planning Board.

The Long Island Chapter of the New York League of Conservation Voters is the nonpartisan voice for Long Island's environmental community. "Molloy College has partnered with the Long Island Chapter of the New York League of Conservation Voters because we believe in their mission of making environmental protection a top priority with elected officials," said Edward Thompson, Vice President for Advancement, Molloy College.

To purchase tickets for this event, visit www.nylcv.org or contact Hilary Wilkes at (212) 361-6350, ext. 204.

For additional information, please contact the Molloy College Office of Public Relations at 516.678.5000. ext. 6020.

#30#

Molloy College was founded in 1955 by the Sisters of St. Dominic. Today, nearly 3,700 undergraduate and graduate students are enrolled at the College. Molloy offers a variety of undergraduate programs including Business, Education, Criminal Justice, Music Therapy, and Mathematics. Molloy also offers graduate programs in Business, Education Criminal Justice and Nursing. The College's main campus is in Rockville Centre, NY and it also conducts classes at its Suffolk Center in East Farmingdale.