Molloy College Invites You to a “Blessing of Animals”

Molloy College will host a “blessing of animals” on the feast of St. Francis of Assisi on October 4, 2007 at 12:15 p.m. Members of the community are invited to bring their animals to a special mass which will be celebrated outdoors at the Grotto of Our Lady, located behind the Sacred Heart Chapel. For safety reasons, all pets should be kept on a leash.

“St. Francis had a great appreciation of God's creation and a special love for animals and the earth,” said Father Patrick Bonner, Molloy’s Chaplain. “We invite the community to come to mass celebrating St. Francis and they are welcome to bring their pets. Pet treats will be given out for our little friends.”
