

Office of Public Relations
516.678.5000 ext. 6300/6119

For Immediate Release

October 3, 2007

Molloy College Celebrates Homecoming and Reunion Weekend

Molloy College alumni and their family and friends are invited to the College's Homecoming and Reunion weekend on October 12-13, 2007. All events will be held on the Rockville Centre campus.

There are a number of fun and interesting events planned for the weekend. We will honor the Classes of '62, '67, '72, '77, '82, '87, '92, and '02. Weekend events include the Alumni Association Breakfast, a Welcome Back Barbeque, Alumni mass and a Dinner Dance.

Philip C. Tarantino, R.N., M.B.A, Ph.D., Class of '84, will receive the Veritas Medal at the Alumni Association Breakfast. He is the first male recipient to receive this award which is presented to outstanding alumni who have brought honor to their Alma Mater by generously giving their time, energy, finances and skills to share the Dominican search for truth with their colleagues and the citizens of their communities. Dr. Tarantino is an active clinician and administrator with over 23 years experience. His expertise is in management, program development, business planning, and curriculum development. Dr. Tarantino currently holds an appointment as a Clinical Assistant Professor and Director of Continuing Professional Education for the Stony Brook University School of Nursing.

The College will also honor alumni Mary Clark (Alumni Service Award) and Frank Wassenbergh (Recent Alumni Achievement Award). Molloy College professors S. Mary Verity Mc Nicholas, Ph.D., English Department, and Nick Fagnoli, Ph.D., Chairperson of the Theology Department, will receive the Distinguished Faculty Award.

For additional information about this event, please contact the Office of Public Relations at 516.678.5000. ext. 6020. Or, visit Molloy's web page at www.molloy.edu/happenings for more information.

#30#