Molloy College Students Make a Run for the Homeless

Molloy College students will once again participate in Midnight Run. Midnight Run is an organized program where food, clothes, and toiletries are delivered by van at night to the homeless on the streets of Manhattan.

Molloy College students will participate in two runs this fall. The first will take place on Friday, October 26, 2007 and the second will take place on Friday, November 30, 2007. Students will make sandwiches to feed the homeless and assist in distributing travel size toiletry items to them.

You can help by donating the following travel size items:

- body lotion
- comb
- deodorant
- razor
- shaving cream
- shampoo & conditioner
- toothbrush
- toothpaste

If you have items to donate please drop them off in the Campus Ministries Office (K006) located in Kellenberg Hall on the Molloy campus.

If you have any questions, please contact Sister Diane Capuano, Associate Campus Minister, at 516.678.5000 ext. 6935.
