Molloy College Announces New Board Members

Drew Bogner, Ph.D., President, Molloy College, is pleased to announce the newest members of the College's Board of Trustees:

- Theresa P. Ahlstrom, C.P.A.
- Philip Darcy
- Mary Hughes, O.P., Ed.D. '68
- Kathleen A. Sideli, Ph.D., '73

"These four individuals have long-standing connections to Molloy, and we are pleased to have them on our Board," said Daniel L. Murphy, M.B.A., '87, Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Molloy College.

Theresa P. Ahlstrom is the Long Island Office Managing Partner and the Northeast Audit Quality Support Partner at KPMG. She plays a key role in the development and execution of the area's audit quality enhancement initiatives. She graduated from St. John's University with a B.S. degree in accounting. Ahlstrom is a member of the New York State Society of CPA's and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. She has been inducted into the YWCA Academy of Women Achievers and Long Island's Top 50 Women Hall of Fame in 2000, 2001 and 2003.

Philip Darcy is part of a prominent Molloy family – his father Frank served on Molloy's Board of Trustees in the 1980's and '90's, and he, his brother, Francis, and his wife, Jennifer, all studied at Molloy. He also served as assistant coach of the Men's Lacrosse team. Darcy is currently Vice President of Realty Asset Group, Ltd.

Mary Hughes, O.P., Ed.D., an alum of Molloy College, is the Prioress for the Dominican Sisters of Amityville. Most recently she was the Special Executive Assistant to the President at Iona College in New Rochelle, New York representing the College at public events, working with Iona's Board of Trustees, chairing special committees and serving as an ombudsman for the faculty at the College. Hughes' background in education includes teaching in the Education departments at Iona and St. Francis Colleges. She has worked as a consultant and is a member of a number of boards.

Kathleen Sideli, Ph.D., who is also an alum of the College, is the Associate Vice President for Overseas Study at Indiana University where she has responsibility for all study abroad programs. Although she has traveled to a number of countries throughout the world, Ms.

Sideli is a native of Long Island having grown up in Massapequa. She holds a Master's degree and Ph.D. in Spanish literature from Indiana University. She taught in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Indiana University for twenty-five years and has been active in studying abroad for three decades. In addition to her many academic achievements, Ms. Sideli has won a number of awards and recognitions including Molloy's Veritas Award in 2006. She is a published author and a member of numerous boards, councils and committees, all of which are focused on improving education.
