Molloy College Students Make a Run for the Homeless

Molloy College students will participate in Midnight Run on Friday, November 30, 2007. Midnight Run is an organized program where food, clothes, and toiletries are delivered by van at night to the homeless on the streets of Manhattan. Students will make sandwiches to feed the homeless and assist in distributing travel size toiletry items to them.

If you have any questions, please contact Sister Diane Capuano, Associate Campus Minister, at 516.678.5000 ext. 6935.
