David Mack & Anthony Cancellieri Chair Molloy College Criminal Justice Advisory Board

On November 28, 2007, Molloy College hosted a meeting of its new Criminal Justice Advisory Board. David S. Mack, Assistant Commissioner, Nassau County Police Department, and Anthony Cancellieri, Vice President, Park Strategies, LLC, co-chair this new board.

"The purpose of the Board is to assist Molloy College in its quest to provide the best Criminal Justice education in the region," said Mack. "We are grateful to these individuals for their expertise and council."

Comprised of the region's most prominent law enforcement officials, the Board includes:

- Robert Bishop, Fire Commissioner (Retired), Nassau County Police Department
- Chief George F. Brown, New York City Police Department
- James C. Burke, Inspector, Suffolk County Police Department
- Commissioner Ernest Cipullo, Garden City Police Department
- Dennis Farrell, CEO, Federal Shield Consulting
- Rene Fiechter, Assistant District Attorney, Nassau County
- Major Walter Heesch, New York State Police
- Captain Jaime J. Kaminski, Zone Commander, New York State Police
- Alexi Mantios, United States Attorney's Office - Eastern District of New York
- Commissioner, Jack McKeon, Rockville Centre Police Department
- Chief Robert Moore, Suffolk County Police Department
- Commissioner Larry Mulvey, Nassau County Police Department
- Chief Rafael Pineiro, New York City Police Department
- Captain Michael Williams, New York State Police
- Chief Douglas Zeigler, New York City Police Department

"The Criminal Justice Program at Molloy College is proud and honored to have such a prestigious group of individuals serving as our Advisory Board," said John Eterno, Ph.D., Chairperson of Molloy's Criminal Justice Department.

"I have been impressed with the leadership of this committee and I am confident that with their input and advice we will have the premier Criminal Justice program in the region," said Drew Bogner, Ph.D., President, Molloy College. "I am personally very grateful that David Mack would lend his expertise and leadership to this important initiative."
