Molloy College to Host Discussion on the Exoneration of Jeffery Deskovic

Jeffery Deskovic spent 16 years behind bars for a crime he never committed.

In 1990 Deskovic, who was a teenager at the time, was convicted in the rape and murder of a classmate in Peekskill, NY. His innocence was established in 2006 by the Westchester County District Attorney's Office through the use of DNA testing.

Deskovic and others will discuss the work that needs to be done to bring justice to others wrongly incarcerated.

The program will take place on Wednesday, March 5, 2008, at 10:30 a.m., Reception Room, Kellenberg Hall. There is no charge for this event.

For further information regarding the event please contact Marion Lowenthal, Special Programs, 516.678.5000 ext. 6880.
