Molloy College Presents a ‘Retrospective’ of Cardinal Jean-Marie Lustiger

On Sunday, March 9, 2008, Molloy College will present a ‘Retrospective’ of Cardinal Jean-Marie Lustiger, Cardinal of France.

Cardinal Lustiger was a highly intellectual and deeply theological man. He played a controversial role as a Christian having converted to Catholicism from Judaism. He was known to be a brilliant scholar and spoke five languages. This unique man made Jewish-Christian relations a concern during his career.

Panelists for this event are: Thomas M. Catania, Ph.D., Professor of English and Theological and Religious Studies, Molloy College; and Rabbi Paul Kushner, D.D., Temple Shaarei Shalom, Bellmore, New York.

The event will take place Sunday, March 9, 2008, at 3 p.m., Hays Theatre, Wilbur Arts Center. There is no charge for this event.
