

Office of Public Relations
516.678.5000 ext. 6300/6119

1000 Hempstead Ave., PO Box 5002, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-5002
www.molloy.edu

April 8, 2008

Careers in Teaching Seminars at Molloy College

Molloy College will host Careers in Teaching Seminars at its locations in Nassau, Suffolk and Queens. The seminars will provide information to individuals who are interested in a career in education.

A panel of education professionals, including teachers and administrators, will discuss various concerns of education professionals. Topics will include: skills needed to be a teacher, working conditions in education, teaching career opportunities, and required credentials.

The seminars should be attended by anyone interested in a career in teaching. The seminars will be of special concern to those individuals considering a change in career.

The program dates and times are as follows:

Nassau – Rockville Centre Campus, Thursday, May 8, 2008, 7-9 p.m.

Suffolk – Suffolk Center in East Farmingdale, Wednesday, May 7, 2008, 7-9 p.m.

Queens – Immaculate Conception Center in Douglaston, Tuesday, May 13, 2008, 7-9 p.m.

For information about the seminars please contact Sal Rizzo, Assistant Director Off-Campus Programs, Molloy College, at 516.678.5000 ext. 7510 or 631.755.5510, or via E-mail at srizzo@molloy.edu

#30#