Molloy College to Host 50th Annual “Night of Song”

Molloy College is proud to present the 50th Annual “Night of Song.” The event is the oldest standing tradition on campus.

This year’s event will feature the talents of the Molloy College Concert Choir, the all women’s chorus ‘Daughters of Zion,’ and the acapella group ‘Major Treble.’ Alumni who were members of the Concert Choir/Glee Club during their time at Molloy have been invited to once again sing with the group.

In commemoration of the special anniversary there will be a presentation at intermission recognizing the work done by the “Night of Song” Committee. A plaque will be presented to the group that will be permanently displayed in the lobby of the Wilbur Arts Center, Molloy College. Alumni in the audience, who participated in “Night of Song” performances, will also be recognized.

The event will take place on May 3, 2008, at 8 p.m., Hays Theatre, Wilbur Arts Center, Molloy College. For more information regarding “Night of Song,” contact S. Leo Francis Monaghan, Co-Chair, 516.678.5000 ext. 6149, or Catherine Muscente, Office of Advancement, ext. 6218. RSVP required/Fee for this event.
