Molloy College to Host Round Table Discussion on Immigration: Facts, Morality, and Theological Implications

As the immigration issue takes center stage in the press, legislatures, and houses of worship, a panel of social, political, and religious commentators will explore facts and myths from academic, grassroots, and interfaith perspectives. The program will be presented by the Molloy College Institute of Interfaith Dialogue in conjunction with the Long Island Chapter of the American Jewish Committee.

Round table discussions will be facilitated by: Stephan Mayo, Ph.D., Director of the Center for Social and Ethical Concerns, Molloy College; Luis Valenzuela, Ph.D., LMSW, Executive Director, Long Island Immigrant Alliance; Scott Salvato, Director of Campus Ministries, Molloy College; Stephen Steinlight, Ph.D., Senior Policy Analyst at the Center for Immigration Studies; and Roger Clayman, Executive Director, L.I. Federation of Labor, Long Island.

The event is scheduled for May 4, 2008, at 3 p.m., Hays Theatre, Wilbur Arts Center. There is no charge for this event. For further information please contact Marion Lowenthal, Special Programs, 516.678.5000 ext 6880.
