Molloy College Announces New Chairman and New Board Members

Drew Bogner, Ph.D., President, Molloy College, is pleased to announce a new Chairman, and welcome three new members to the College's Board of Trustees.

Daniel T. Henry, M.B.A., has been elected to serve as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Molloy College, effective July 1, 2008. Mr. Henry is Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of American Express, a position he assumed in October 2007. In this role he is a key advisor on strategic and financial matters worldwide. He oversees the company's Finance organization and represents American Express to investors, lenders, and rating agencies. Mr. Henry holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Iona College, and a Master of Business Administration degree from Hofstra University. He has a long relationship with Molloy having served as Vice Chairman of Molloy's Board, as well as the Chairman of the Mission Effectiveness Committee of the Board. Mr. Henry and his wife Kathy have four children and reside in Rockville Centre.

Mr. Henry replaces Daniel L. Murphy, M.B.A., '87, who completed a three-year term as Chairman and remains an active member of the Board.

"We are honored to have Dan Henry serve as the Chairman of our Board. His background and expertise will assist us in advancing the mission of the College," said Drew Bogner, Ph.D., President, Molloy College. "I also want to thank Dan Murphy for serving as Chairman for the past three years. Together we accomplished a great deal including launching our successful capital campaign. As a Molloy alum, Dan has a strong affinity to the College, and I look forward to continuing working with him as a valued member of the Board."

The following three individuals are newly elected to the Board of Trustees:

- Sheila C. D'Nodal, M.D.
- John Pohlman, C.P.A., M.B.A.
- Lisa Tepper, B.S.

Sheila C. D'Nodal, M.D., is Vice President of Ambulatory Services at South Nassau Communities Hospital and the Hospital's Diversity Officer. She received her medical degree from Tufts University School of Medicine. Dr. D’Nodal serves on the following committees: the New York State Minority Health Council, the Alliance of Latinos with Disabilities, the American Cancer Society, and the Hispanic Brotherhood of Rockville Centre. An active member of her community, Dr. D’Nodal and her family live in Rockville Centre.

John Pohlman, C.P.A., M.B.A.,’06 is the Vice President of Finance for the Suffolk County Division of Catholic Health Services of Long Island. Mr. Pohlman holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Fordham University, and his M.B.A. in Business Management from Molloy. He and his wife are co-founders of the Carson Lalli Pohlman Brain Cancer Foundation, a not-for-profit organization created in honor of their daughter who died of brain cancer. Mr. Pohlman and his family make their home in Dix Hills, New York.

Lisa Tepper, B.S., is the Regional President of the Downstate New York/New Jersey Region for Travelers. Ms. Tepper has over 25 years of experience in the insurance field, and earned her Bachelor degree from Siena College. She and her family reside in Basking Ridge, New Jersey.
