Attend Molloy Institute for Life Long Learning Opening Sessions
Free of Charge

The Molloy College Institute for Life Long Learning (MILL) is extending a special offer to prospective members. Those interested in attending the 2009-2010 Institute, or just curious about what MILL has to offer, may attend the first session at no charge. Sessions will be held at convenient Nassau and Suffolk locations.

"MILL provides an intellectual feast for retired or semi-retired individuals with a love of learning," said Program Director, Marion Lowenthal. MILL classes are presented by Molloy College faculty, and lectures are given by professionals in various areas as well as representatives from local, national or international organizations.

Opening sessions are as follows:

MILL Section I- Nassau

Tuesday September 15, 2009
St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Rockville Centre

MILL Section II - Nassau

Friday September 18, 2009
St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Rockville Centre

MILL Section III-Suffolk

Wednesday September 9, 2009
Molloy College's Suffolk Center, Farmingdale

For more information please call Marion Lowenthal, Program Director, or Jessie Prasad, Assistant, at 516.678.5000 ext. 6880 or 6162.
