MOLLOY COLLEGE OFFERS SAT PREP COURSE FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Molloy College's Continuing Education Program is offering an SAT prep course for high school students. Students will review the math, critical reading, and writing skills on the exam and will learn test-taking strategies to help them work faster and more confidently to maximize their scores.

Saturday classes begin September 26, 2009 and Tuesday evening classes begin September 29, 2009 at Molloy's Rockville Centre campus. Both sections will be completed in time for the November 7, 2009 SAT exam. To enroll, contact Molloy's Continuing Education office at (516) 678-5000 ext. 6206, or register online at www.molloy.edu/ce/sat
